Imperial Tea Court

The Embarcadero – San Francisco

We return in June to the Ferry Building Teahouse, the San Francisco home of the Imperial Tea Court. This institution is renowned as an exclusive source for many of the most highly acclaimed and sought-after teas produced today. Here, visitors can sample teas individually or share informally with others in a beautiful setting of comfortable furnishings, elegant rosewood tables, and Chinese teaware. Also available for purchase are some of the world's finest hand-picked Chinese teas.

Tal-Y-Tara Tea Room & Garden

Sea Cliff – San Francisco

Last year, our members voted the Tal-Y-Tara their favorite place to visit, and it's no wonder! Described by its patrons as a charming little secret, this equestrian shop and tea room features a friendly staff, plentiful pots of tea, a lovely garden, and delicious treats. In fact, it's the only place in the world known to serve "Motorloaf" sandwiches! Come spend a relaxing afternoon with us at this delightful oasis – you'll be sure to count it among your favorites, as well.

Secret Garden Tea House

Inner Sunset – San Francisco

This is another tearoom noteworthy for its personal touches. Beyond the main room sits a Victorian house whose décor incorporates a touch of country cottage, and which also has a dress-up room for little girls, who would be enchanted by the selection of fairy wings and ballet skirts. A tea blender, who creates teas exclusively for the Secret Garden, hand blends the selection of 21 teas. Besides the traditional three-course high tea of sandwiches, scones, and pastries, they offer tasty warm "savories" such as finger sandwiches of cheddar and chutney or curried egg, with a touch of spice.
